

GWY SĕhAōdA 231

SŕōdA 3, 2014

Speaker Today at 5:30

Dave Baldrige

Director of International Association for Indigenous Aging

speaks on Diabetes and Mental Health
College of Health and Human Sciences
Room 204

(we will break class a little early today)

Types of Nouns (PP018SP13)

Simple Nouns

Simple Nouns do not change. They do not take plural marking. Plural marking is carried on the verb.

∅ Z∅Б star

ʁ ʁʁ skunk

Types of Nouns (PP018SP13)

Possessed Nouns

Possessed Nouns show Person marking for the possessor. Possessed Nouns are marked for Plural. Clothes and Body.

t_ɹ Dt_ɹʉ shirt

agwahnawo my shirt

uhnawo his/her shirt

Types of Nouns (PP018SP13)

Human Reference

Nouns that refer to humans often take Tsi-/ G- Set Pronouns that reference the Person of the human.

Ɔ DƆoV she woman

tsigehya I woman

tsi- ~ a- a-Stem Pronoun Pattern

Types of Nouns (PP018SP13)

Relationship Nouns

Reciprocal Relationship. Sisters are sisters to each other. Brothers are brothers to each other. Friends are friends to each other. Plural Intransitive Person pronouns.

dosdadanvtsi

he and I are brothers

oginali'i

he/she and I are friends

Types of Nouns (PP018SP13)

Relationship Nouns

Non-Reciprocal Relationship. Mother-child, father-child, etc. are non-reciprocal relationships.

agitsi she is mother to me, my mother tsatsi she is mother to you, your mother utsi she is mother to him/her etsi a mother to someone, mom

Types of Nouns

Deverbal

Imperfective Agent nouns are build on Imperfective Stems with -i Agent Noun Final. Imperfective Agent nouns inflect for Person.

didehlogwasgi a student, a learner

didehyohvsgi a teacher

Types of Nouns

Deverbal

Infinitive Instrument nouns are build on Infinitive Stems. They indicate the entity referenced by the verb.

alsdayhdi food

ulsdayhdi for her/him to eat, his/her food gvnosasdi broom uwanosasdi for him/her to sweep

Review 132 018PP

Cherokee 132 018 PP covers some of these noun types in greater detail.

We will come back to all these noun types.

Review Agi-/Agw- Set Pronouns.

Review Tsi-/G- Set Pronouns.

Cherokee Syllabary Bingo!

Cherokee Syllabary in 4x4 Bingo format

1. Review the 24-word vocabulary.
2. Write in 16 of the syllables.
3. Brainstorm words with same syllables.
4. Play the bingo game. Teacher calls first game. Students take over.

Vsgi Nigaa!

Vsgi nigaa! That's all.

Now you know the syllabary. We will post Quiz and Homework 02 asap, discuss on Monday.