

Peter Parley's Universal History
Cherokee Advocate vol. 3, no. 27, 4/8/1847

Peter Parley's Universal History
CHAPTER XC. EUROPE CONTINUED
ayadolvi XC.
asigwo wigvwagudi iyulogwi kanohedv.

Roman farms. Mode of ploughing. Farm-houses. Grain. Cattle. Superstitions of the farmers. Gardens. Vines.

1. I AM now going to tell you about the farms and gardens of the Romans. In the early and more virtuous ages of the state, the cultivation of the fields, and a few rude trades connected with it, were the only occupations.

Transcribe this text. Use d and g to represent ambiguous syllables.

hia hnagwo aginohedi nigalisdiha, deunilogedvi ale uniwisvdiyi deunotlvnvi anilomi tsunadoidv tsanehei eti nahsgino hia hnagwo unalenvhei digvwanilvwi sdanedi wuliyilole anadanetliyvsi vi digvwanatlinigvnedi hnagwo nulistanei deunilogesv ale aniwisgv ale anadvhisdisgvi tsudalenvdv ale ganododi tsudalenvdv unihe tsunadanodanedi adinai vsla osvgwo yigesei gvsgaistanvhi iyusdi ditselidv utloyasdei nahsgigwo uwasv deunilvwisdanehei.

